

GREYLOCK WEALTH AMBASSADORS PROGRAM

The Greylock Wealth Ambassadors Program is a 9-month focus and influencer group for up to 20 Members currently in middle school, high school, vocational, or college. The program is designed to deepen connections with younger Members by expanding their awareness on the credit union and general financial literacy through monthly online conversations, as well as providing opportunities for involvement with in-person Greylock-themed events. Through the duration of their participation, Wealth Ambassadors will also serve as brand ambassadors for Greylock by incorporating various Greylock-branded items (which will be provided) into their everyday lives. In addition to these items, participants will also receive a $300 stipend (upon full completion of the program), and at the completion of the program, a letter of commendation noting their participation for their academic/professional records.

Eligibility

Participants must be a Member in good standing with Greylock.

To apply, fill out the Greylock Wealth Ambassador Form. Applications may be submitted in either hard copy or electronic format. Electronic submissions must be formatted as either a .PDF or Word document. Please no “Screen prints” or pictures or submissions in any other format. The application must be returned no later than Friday, July 17, 2026.
